Pray for Moon and Stars at Starlight Stomp Tomorrow Night

Guys and dolls! On June 2 you can forget studying for exams between 8:30 and 12 p. m. while you dance under the stars at the annual Starlight Stomp. A dreamy Saturday night in June amid spotlights, canopies, and trellises it will be, with even the band's name in keeping with the occasion: Ralph June!

For $1.25, tomorrow night will have everything; tables set up in the court, cokes and small cakes served in the Elbow Room, and beautiful weather (we hope!).

Shaker's brand new president, Steve Alfred, is in charge of the dance, which is traditionally the final school dance of the year. The dance is being planned by the new school officers, who are proving their worth to the school.

The band was obtained through the efforts of Mickey Bloomfield and Don Roskoph. Ted Reinbrecht and Steve Alfred looked after tickets and advertising. The decorations were achieved by the talents of Greg Holmes and Judy Anderson. And the most popular job of all, refreshments, were prepared by Carol Barr and Nancy Whanger.

The Starlight Stomp is tomorrow night, Shakerites—it'll be terrific! Be there!

Seniors Leave With Gala Prom

The night of Wednesday, June 6, will be a gala one for many Shakerites, for that is the night of the Senior Prom. The dance will be held at the Canterbury Country Club beginning at 8:30. Seniors and their dates will dance to the music of Bill Woodring's band. Parties before the dance have been planned, and some will also be given afterwards to round out the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rupp, Mr. and Mrs. William Slade, some members of the faculty, and the parents of the senior class officers have been invited to attend. A king and queen will be chosen at the Prom by a means not yet decided upon. The dance is under the supervision of the officers of the class of 1951, who are Bill Falsgraf, Bruce Ohmann, Mary Mountcastle, and Bob Laird.

Gottesman, Moore Go on Trip Sponsored By Society for Savings

Any girls who happened to wander into the Hathaway Shop at Shaker Square about two weeks ago would probably have seen a very ill-at-ease Mike Moore waiting while Judy Gottesman had her picture taken. Judy and Mike were each given a five dollar check by the Society for Savings and asked to spend it at the Hathaway Shop and Gun and Tackle Shop respectively. The purpose of this generous gesture was to show children in the elementary schools who have accounts at the Society for Savings just what happens to their money.

The photographer followed Mike and Judy from the stores where they spent their money, to the Cleveland Trust Company, to the Federal Reserve Bank, and finally to the Society for Savings. The result was a story in pictures showing the elementary school children what happens to a check on its way to the Society for Savings.

Jeffrey to Rochester

Mr. Charles Bartley Jeffrey, a current Cleveland Museum of Art May Show prize winner and director of art in the Shaker Heights public schools, will be guest instructor in enameling at the workshop School of American Craftsmen, Rochester (N.Y.) Institute of Technology. He will succeed Miss Mitzi Otten, noted Viennese enamelist.

Mr. Jeffrey is also an instructor in enameling at the Cleveland Institute of Art evening school. He is nationally known for his ecclesiastical pieces, frequently in the cloisonne technique.

Hiram President To Address Shaker Commencement

Dr. Paul Henry Fall, the president of Hiram College, will give the commencement address next Wednesday evening to almost 200 seniors, their parents, and guests. After the program there will be a reception in the court.

In the program the A Cappella Choir will present "Master of Human Destinies" by Hillman and the church scene from Mascagni's opera "Cavalleria Rusticana" with Karyol Winbauer, soprano, and Barbara Van Sittert, contralto.

The invocation will be given by the Reverend S. Walter Roshaven, the minister of the East View Congregational Church.

Mr. Rufus S. Day Jr., president of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas. The band will play Pomp and Circumstance for the Processional and Pomp and Chivalry for Recessional.

Four Shakerites Win Writing Awards

Again this year, Shaker High has taken high honors for having four students who won certificates in the National Scholastic Writing Contest in Pittsburgh this past month. Three of the four students received awards in the art division, the fourth in the writing division. In the art class was Craig McArt who received a place in the show for his textile design, Paul Hexter, who received honorable mention for his photograph, and Lynn Zucker, who won a place for her painting showing a corner of the art room in the high school building. In the writing division, Kitsy Barber received commendation for her current affairs report on Democracy.

All these entries were in competition with Regional winners from all over the United States. Shaker is very proud to have these four winners represent their school.

Mapes and Falsgraf Awarded Citizenship Trophies by Seniors

With a difficult decision facing them, the senior class cast their final votes for the choice of the citizenship award winners. The results were announced to the school as the Senior Honor Day Assembly. When the tape was removed from the inscription on the trophies by the able fingers of next year's president, Steve Alfred, it was revealed that Jerry Mapes had triumphed over the other finalists, Nancy Glick and Frema Kutler, and Bill Falsgraph topped George Karch and Les Nash.

Elizabeth has played hockey, volleyball, varsity basketball, and has been in Shares. During the summer she turned these skills to good account by working as a camp counsellor. She has been a member of Honor Study Hall for three years. As a junior, Jerry was secretary of the Student Council, and was crowned queen of the junior prom.

This year, Jerry was chairman of the activities committee of the Student Council, which plans the major social functions of the school year. She was selected to be one of the members of the student panel that discussed the problems and goals of democracy for the community in February.

"Whitey," now seventeen, is popular with his classmates, responsible and co-operative with a variety of interests. Whitey has gone out for tennis and swimming, and is a member of the Varsity S Club. He has been a member of Honor Study Hall for three years, finishing as president of the Central Committee—a pattern he followed in HI-Y. He has taken part in dramatic productions. This year Bill is president of the senior class.

This presentation, made annually to the girl and boy who have shown the highest degree of citizenship during high school, is sponsored by the Shaker Square Businessmen's Association.

'Teen Town' Open Frinites All Summer

White Spire Teen Town, located at Christ Church on Warrensville Center Road, will remain open throughout the summer on Fridays from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. The center, open to all from 9th grade to college levels, offers such amusements as ping-pong, shuffleboard, box-hockey, cards and other games. These games are set up in the lower hall of the church, while dancing to Dick Peters Band occupies the upper hall. Another added attraction of this "Teen Town" is the low fee of ten cents and the fact that light refreshments are served.

Army Asks Rupp To Tour Orient

The United States Army is planning to hold football clinics in the East where our armed forces are stationed. Four football coaches and four football officials have been chosen, one from each of the four football conferences. Among the four officials, Shaker's principal, Russell Rupp, has been chosen from the Western Football Conference.

When asked about his coming job as a teacher of the techniques and mechanics of football, Mr. Rupp stated, "I am happy to participate in this program for the men in the service and am grateful to have been chosen."

The eight men will leave from San Francisco on June 10 and will be back in the States July 15. Their destination is not as yet known, but they may touch the Philippines, Japan, and possibly even Korea.

Mr. Rupp is celebrating his 25th anniversary with the Shaker School system. He has been principal of the high school for six years.

Will Become Doctor

In addition to honors in Shaker, Mr. Rupp will be awarded an honorary doctor-of-pedagogy degree at the 82nd commencement exercises of his alma mater, Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pennsylvania, June 4.

Teachers Tackle Homework; Students Awaiting Relief

Although few of us realize it, there is a group of teachers here at Shaker making a special effort to re-define our school's homework policy and find a solution to our homework problems. There have been several committees who have been investigating various subjects such as homework, examinations, and extra-curricular activities. The ultimate aim of these committees is to state a definite policy in regard to their specific subjects. The homework committee consists of Mr. Starr, Mr. Klyver, Mr. David, Mr. Bosch, Mr. Henry, Miss Blair, Dr. Dilley, Mrs. Barrow, Miss Palmer, Miss Nichol, and Miss Siley.

Some of the questions with which the committee dealt were, how much homework should be given in each subject each night; whether time should be given in class to work on homework assignments; whether the assignments are clear and are given in enough detail, and whether the flexible period is strictly observed.

Although the committee has not finished its study, they have already made some recommendations.

Announcement of the 1951-52 Gristmill Staff was made by Mr. George Starr, Gristmill adviser. Heading the board will be Elliott Schlang, who will serve as editor-in-chief. Phil Wick, business manager, and Sandra Quay, advertising manager, will be concerned with the financing of the publication. Others on the staff include George Breckling, feature editor; Marilyn Williams, club editor; Elaine Hassler, senior editor; Ted Reinbrecht, boys' sports editor; Judy Anderson, girls' sports editor; Jo Ann David, appointments editor; Judy Gottesman, mid-year editor; Merle Papurt and Joan Sanders, art editors; and Jerry Aidlin, assistant art editor.

Pollak, Kutler Cop High French Awards

For the third consecutive year, Shaker has won first place in the French III Regional Scholastic Contest due to the fine work of eleventh grader, Lois Pollak. Even a tough dictation and tricky questions on French civilization didn't stymie Lois, who finds French very easy and enjoyable.

Coming in second in the state contest for French IV students, was Frema Kutler. Anyone in the United States is eligible, in their respective years of study, to enter this contest, sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of French. During the week of April 9-13, students from all over the country were taking these exams. The best paper was selected from each grade and sent to the state committee. From the state, one paper is chosen to go to the regional committee where a winner is chosen. Now the final test is coming when all of the regional winners are sent to the national committee where the national winner will be picked.

Congratulations!

Shaker girls deserve congratulations on voluntarily deciding to discontinue their sororities as of this June. This action will probably be a shot in the arm to the school spirit at Shaker. It is hoped that in the coming school year we will all really put forth a little more than average effort to make the social program go over well. Obviously, successful school spirit does not depend on the faculty or the student council officers, but it does depend on each individual Shakerite's active and whole-hearted support of all activities. Remember, Shakerites, it's up to us, the students, whether or not we have fun next year. Let's make it the best Shaker's ever known!

Many Share in Success Of Arsenic and Old Lace

It was standing-room-only as the students, their friends, and their relatives filled the auditorium on May 11 and 12 for the Senior sponsored production of "Arsenic and Old Lace."

This success that kept the school spirit at the same high level of the Open House turnout and the Tag Day sell-out was heart-warming to see.

Congratulations go to those members of the Senior Class, for so ably managing the ticket sales; to the cast, for their fine performance; to the production staff, for seeing that everything went smoothly; to Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Crosby, for their guidance; and to the audience, for finding time in their busy schedules to attend the play.

This presentation really helped to raise the high standard of Shaker Senior High's dramatic productions.

Annual Picnic Ends Successful Hi-Y Year

The big event for the combined Hi-Y was their annual picnic in May. This year the picnic was held at Centerville Mills Y. M. C. A. on May 19. For the entertainment the boys had access to the tennis courts, and baseball diamond; later on in the evening there was dancing in the shelter house. The girls packed lunches for their dates and refreshments were served by the refreshment committee, consisting of Jim Hinz, Bill Fuller, Bill Falsgraf, Dick Carney, Tom Hayes, Dave Reimer, and Joe Balaz.

The last program of the year for the combined Hi-Y was a joint meeting with Y-Teen. At this meeting there was a panel discussion on the Do's and Don'ts of Dating. This program was ably led by Frank Wertheimer as moderator with the panel consisting of Al Sims, Bob Ruffini, Mel Pattison, and Dan Gaiser.

The Hi-Y also lent their support to the band and Choir Concert by purchasing a patron ticket. This service was under the direction of Chuck Pimlott.

The combined clubs finished up their odds and ends of business on May 29.

Shakerites Laugh Off Exams But They Haven't Seen Them Yet!

With exam week getting ready to descend upon us once again the teachers are fiendishly trying their hardest to think of some good questions that will be sure to flunk at least twenty percent of the hard-working students. After a long year of suffering, the teachers are finally getting their revenge. However, Shaker students have their ways of getting around almost everything, and exams are no exception.

Bill Tesmer has solved the exam week tension problem by parking himself at the Dairy Queen and filling up on those energy-packed cherry milkshakes.

Pete Merrill jets around in his black Ford and lets off extra steam by seeing how many principals he can bump off. Marc Meshorer welcomes the relaxation exam week brings after a year's hard work. Exams are fondly regarded by many Shakerites as the pearly gates to summer school.

Jimmy Bennett, with his usual roguish grin, said, "Exams? What are they anyhow?" Midge Lehman's teeth are chattering already in apprehension of the American history exam. She feels that even the General's blitzes look easy after one exam question has sunk its way into the decaying recesses of her aperceptive mass.

Hardened seniors like Ruth Gilbert easily shrug such trivial matters as exams off in all the excitement of graduation. However, the geometry classes have decided that there is a silver lining to every cloud. They're looking forward to being together again this summer!

Seniors Disperse in '51

When September comes, the members of the graduating class of June 1951 will be scattered throughout the country, attending various colleges, working, (not that they won't work in college) or just loafing for a while.

Heading 'way out West to attend the University of Colorado will be John Ferguson and George Armington. Down south, the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Florida, will be the destination of Barbara Bassett, Roslyn Tepper, Joan Lieberman, Carole Sheinbart, Marlene Cohen, Howard Beallo, and Bill Hendrick. Don Clokey and Bruce Ohmann will be at Carleton, and Margery Kerslake will attend Cornell. Huck Finn, Bill Fuller, and Ron Lewis are three Shakerites who plan to spend the next four years at Duke University.

Bob Englander and Ted Daus will attend Dartmouth, and Sharon Fox, Evelyn Klausner, and Barbara Neuger will be at Indiana University. Michigan State will be the future home of Bud Abell and Dave Janson, while Ruth Gilbert, Mona Roseman, Janice Rose, Shirley Thomas, Dieter Hanauer, and Norm Harbert will attend the University of Michigan. Future Wellesley students are Nancy Halter, Nancy Glick, and Louise Scher. Martin Marcus and Ken Kirtz will attend the University of Pennsylvania; Marjory Thomas and Linda Ciraci will be at Monticello Junior College in Alton, Illinois; Kay Fulton and Mary Ellen Gazley will attend Northwestern; Ron Everling will be at Penn State, and Ivan Schneiderman will attend Purdue.

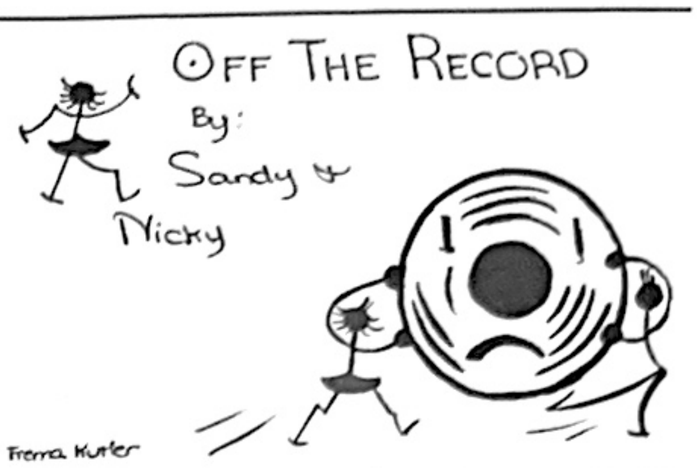
Among these are Dale Glaser, Judy Lavin, Don Herman, Jim Hersh, Ted Wiant, and Cynthia Chappell, who will be at Bowling Green State University. Denison University is the destination of Tom Clark and Barbara Bauhof. Barry Godley, Dee Gaeta, Bob Kroesen, Carole Willow, Tony Lombardo, Lloyd Wasserman, and Ron Benach will be at Kent State. Future Miami University students are Bob Gold, Frank Gorman, Carol Nelson and Betty Wertheim.

Ohio State will have a large Shaker enrollment next year! Among the many seniors who will be there are Ron Elefant, Pat King, Beverly Freed, Selma Halberg, Lib Tharett, Rita Krinsky, Ronnie Kohn, Roger Landers, Ron Trezise, Chuck Sells, Harvey Rosen, Mike Riemer, Barbara Balantzow, and David Carter. Not to be confused with the Ohio State students are the future Ohio University students. Included in this latter group are Tom Terhune, Ginny Liedy, Chuck Naegel, Joe Moran, Marge Stricker, Jay Smythe, Dick Dexter and Dick Chiara. Four future Ohio Wesleyan students are Margot Hagans, Doris Warren, Mary Jo Wood and Mary Berney, and Rhina Holtz will attend Hiram College.

Staying real close to home will be Kay Lee and Sue Farley who will be at St. Luke's Hospital, Evelynne Fisher, Adele Stromberg, and Nan Brownell will attend Mather; Zoanne Dodds and Dan Angyal will both attend Fenn; (Editor's note: H-m-m-m). Dick Frederick will be at Case, Eileen Katz at Cleveland College, Neil Rackliffe at John Carroll, Toni Fritz at the Cleveland Institute of Music, and Gib Moritz at the Cleveland Institute of art.

Students who have made plans to further their education in ways other than attending college include Jackie Georgian who will be married on June 27, Marilyn Finklestein who will enter the professional entertainment field, Jim Hinz and Myrna Dorn, who will work at the Telephone Company, and Terry Ryan who is planning to work a year and then enter Centenary Junior College. Paul Brandgard and Bob Demson will become U.S. Air force Men in June, and Hap Hanscom will join the Navy Reserve this summer.



Immediately after school lets out, many of you Shakerites will be heading away from our fair town. Barbara Rose will be heading east to visit relatives in Boston. Jo Comella is planning to head west to spend two weeks in Wyoming, while Nancy Baker and Lynn Walton will be going south. They will spend two months just basking in the Florida sun, which would be hard to take. To complete the four directions on the compass, Shirley Rask will be heading north to witness the Toronto Exhibition. Also going east are Jerry McLain, Bill Edwards, George Worrall, Dick Chiara, and Bruce Cochran, who will stay in New York State. Tom Conant will be in Allentown, Pennsylvania while Bill Fuller is planning to spend the entire summer in Maryland. Hank Curtis is traveling to Canada, Marilyn Basinger is going to California, and George Karch will be in Colorado. John Ferguson will spend the summer in Hawaii, and Tom Delfs is planning to leave the country to visit relatives in Germany. Also, Leslie Towle and Jerry Horvath are going to spend some time at Kelly's Island. Well, we certainly hope that all these kids have a wonderful summer and that anyone else who is going away also has a good time. That goes for the kids, like us, who are staying home, too.

On Wednesday night, June 6th, the senior class will hold its Senior Prom at the Canterbury Club. The music will be played by Bill Woodring and his band. Starting at eight-thirty and ending at twelve, the prom will be followed by a breakfast at Gabi Weil's. Gabi is the energetic social chairman of the senior class. But this is just one of the many parties which will be filling up the seniors last hours of memories of high school.

Mark Silverberg is going with Anne Schauer to the prom, Terry Ryan will arrive with Jack Wise, Frank Gorman and Huck Finn are taking Carole Marchand and Nancy Hyde, respectively. Jim Hinz will come with Marge Kerslake, Mark Shaffer is taking Jane Robinson, and Dee Robb will come with Alan Glueck, to name a few.

Congratulations are due to both Nancy Hyde and Barb Coy for the terrific job they did on TV on Sunday, May 20th. They performed their tremendous act which they call "Frankie and Johnnie" and they really did a job of which Shaker can well be proud.

Have you noticed that these past few weeks have been absolutely clogged with work? Well, we hope you have also noticed how many energetic (and consequently stiff) kids have been practicing for cheerleader try-outs. It's really wonderful to know that so many are really interested in the spirit of the school. Good Luck to all of them!

Though it is long past, we're sure the Junior Prom will linger in your minds for a long time to come. It truly was a success and much credit is to be given to Miss Nichol, 11A class sponsor, and Sandy Quay, class social chairman. Crowned queen at eleven o'clock was Gractia Parsons, who was escorted by Neil Newman. Mary Jo Comella and Marilyn Basinger were her attendants and Judy Anderson, Bertha Samas, and Julie Doyle were also awarded the honor of having been nominated for queen. Not only were the queen and her court handsome to look at, but the decorations and the food were lovely, also.

Two other past events which deserve mention are the annual Band and Choir picnic, and the Senior class picnic. The former was held Thursday, May 31, at Strawberry Lane. The traditional baseball game was held in addition to hiking, singing, and eating. Barbara Van Sittert and Don Hale were in charge of the affair. The Senior class picnic was held on Memorial Day at Geauga Lake Park. The seniors met at school, and then spent the rest of the day at the park.

A Tribute to Miss Wood--She's A Trouble-Saver for Seniors

By now each senior is breathing a sigh of relief that the long involved task of filling out college applications, applying for scholarships, and completing arrangements for college boards is over. Imagine having to handle all these details for every senior who is planning to go to college. This is the job of Shaker's registrar, Miss Ethel Wood.

Miss Wood, a native Clevelander, came to Shaker a year ago last July, and has taken care of all of the seniors' college contacts since then. At the end of the year, she begins a college card for each 11A. On this card she lists all the colleges to which an application is sent, the date it is sent, and the date that the credits are sent. Applications for scholarships and withdrawals are also indicated. All formal application blanks, checks, and photos are given to Miss Wood and she goes over them for neatness and accuracy. She fills out the transcripts and sees to it that they are forwarded to all the homeroom teachers and then to the deans. After the composite report comes back to Miss Wood, she writes a letter to the college and takes the completed application to Mr. Rupp for his signature.

Miss Wood sends the semester grades to the colleges immediately after the close of school in June. At the end of the 11A and 12B grades, she averages all the semester grades for each student, which requires a great deal of accuracy. Miss Wood orders all the supplies for the Scholastic Aptitude and College Board examinations and checks all the applications. She also draws up all the State Reports for Mr. Rupp.

Miss Wood

Miss Wood, who formerly worked in industry, says that she has always done detail work and enjoys it as well as the association with the students. "Our relations with the colleges are very important," says Mr. Rupp. "Miss Wood is a great source of satisfaction to us and we are fortunate to have these records kept up to date so neatly and accurately."

Calvin Wins 2nd Spelling Contest

While other Shakerites were sweating out the last week in school, Kim Calvin was spending his time in Washington, D. C. Kim won a free, all-expense paid trip to that city when he placed first in the senior division of the Press Spelling Contest held recently in this area. A member of homeroom 200, he was in Washington from May 20 to 26, accompanied by his English teacher, Mrs. Carothers.

This is not the first time Kim has won spelling awards. In 1949 he traveled to Washington and won the National Oral Spelling Championship, receiving five hundred dollars and a New York trip. Last year, he finished second in the Cleveland contest.

In order to win, Kim had to defeat many opponents and spell such words as "jinseng" and "cacophony," words that most of us don't even know the meaning of!

Fun and New Experience Gained Through Summer Volunteer Work

Besides a summer of fun and new experiences, a chance to try one's skills at various things while deciding upon a permanent vocation is won through volunteer services. Help of teen-age boys and girls is needed this summer by the Central Volunteer Bureau. Shakerites are urged to join hands with the year-round volunteers throughout the city, adding their bit to community service.

The Art Museum needs volunteers to assist instructors with group handling, getting supplies, supervising children's lunch hour, story-telling, and games. The time required is two mornings a week for five weeks. The Western Reserve Historical Society is seeking Sunday guides, typists, and teen-agers for general clerical work on week days. Jobs as guides and laboratory and office assistants are offered by the Museum of Natural History. At least one day a week is required.

Students interested in clerical work and typing may obtain employment for four or more hours a week by getting in touch with the Central Volunteer Bureau of the Welfare Federation of Cleveland. The phone number is CH 1-6850.

A few volunteers for about two days a week are needed at various branch libraries to assist in the children's section and general clerical work. The Children's Fresh Air Camp requests volunteers sixteen years old or older for at least one day a week to help on the playground or quiet play periods. These positions provide excellent experience for students interested in teaching and sociology.

Settlement houses throughout the community need day camp or playground volunteers one or two days a week to help leaders with transportation and the general program. Skills in crafts, dramatics, and story-telling will be helpful to those applying for the job.

Girls interested in nursing are urged to give their time to the County Nursing Homes one day a week to help in the feeding of patients and other miscellaneous hospital work. At least two mornings or afternoons a week are requested by day nurseries to be given by volunteers which will assist teachers with pre-school children in supervised recreation.

Students interested in volunteer work should see Miss Hollon or Mr. Miller. Shakerites interested in full time summer employment should consult Dean's bulletin boards.

Summer School Opens June 12

Although most Shakerites have been eagerly counting the number of school days left until they can go away for a vacation, or start basking in the sun by a swimming pool, many of their friends are planning to keep on improving their minds at summer school. Classes will begin on June 12 and last until August 3.

Courses are offered at the high school in auto mechanics, driver education, speech correction, and typing, as well as the usual academic subjects. There will be a woodworking class open to all high school students at the junior high. Senior high classes meet five days a week for once and one-half hours each day.

Summer school is sponsored by the Board of Education as a self-supporting activity. Tuition is $20 for woodworking, $25 for auto mechanics, $18 for driver education, and $20 for corrective speech. All other courses are $15. Students may register for summer school on June 11 from 9:00-12:00 a. m. in the buildings where the classes will be held. Advance registration may be made in the principal's office. Tuition is due on registration day.

Pitching Strength Brightens Diamond Picture for 1952

A good team on paper, atrocious fielding at times, fair hitting, good pitching toward the end of the season; that spells out this year's Shaker baseball team. With a chance to go somewhere at the beginning of the year the Raider nine didn't quite come up to their early expectation and are now sporting a two-six record at this writing.

No Loafing, Fellas; Grid Training But Sixty Days Away!

Though right now it may seem far away, the 1951 football season is just around the corner. Already, various meetings have been held and the sale of football season passes has begun. With such interest so early in the year, let's look at the future team itself. As a result of earnest and careful study by Coach Halderman, plans for a T-formation offense have been made. This change is due to Shaker's lack of all-around weight and abundance of speed and drive. Considering this, much will depend on our passing ability. More emphasis is also going to be placed on teamwork than on individual assignments.

As in the last few years, practice will begin in the middle of August, with sprints, calisthenics, and "Skull" sessions. This period of the season is very important because it gets the players in shape and also gets them used to the plays to be used when the season opens.

With nine returning lettermen, the Shaker squad promises to be a tough team for all opponents. They are Greg Holmes, Jack Moran, Dutch Rosenburger (co-captain), Steve Clawson, Bruce Meyers, Ted Reinbrecht, Mickey Bloomfield (co-captain), Fred DeLuca, and Steve Mihaly. Also a bright spot is the fact that many sophomores will be coming up to the squad. Concerning the future of the sophomore team, the prospect is bright with the arrival of some outstanding freshmen.

Ted Baumgardner

On the brighter side, Les Nash, Willis McFarlane, and George Karch have been keeping Shaker in some of the battles with their excellent hitting. Nash is batting over .500 which is an exceptional average for a high school boy. With four games to play, the Raiders hoped to start a winning streak that would make their record a bit more respectable. Games include Cleveland Heights, John Adams, South, and Euclid.

As for next year, Mr. Heinlen is looking forward anxiously for the summer play, where he can get a better look at some promising sophomores along with the regular juniors that made up the team during this campaign. Experience is the best teacher, and Coach Heinlen hopes this saying will apply to the fielding of the 1952 squad. The returning juniors will be Greg Holmes, Stuart Neye, Bill Tesmer, and Jack Moran. The sophomore help will come primarily from Ted Baumgardner, George King, Dick Eston and Mort Janko. Next year, the pitching will center around Dick Moore and Corky Smith, both of whom have come a long way in the past season.

Social Security Card Vital for Job

Here's an item to put in your "I must do" list. Get a Social Security card now before you go out looking for employment, not after. Any employer who hires you will want to see your Social Security card before putting you to work. If you don't have one, it will mean a delay in starting the job.

Some of you may already have obtained a Social Security card, and lost it. If so, go to the nearest Social Security office and get a duplicate. Do not get a new card with a different number. Tell the people at the office that you have lost your card. This is important.

There are three Social Security offices in Cleveland—on the east side at 10406 Euclid Avenue, on the west side at 2012 West 25th Street, and downtown at 1120 Chester Avenue. Go to the office nearest you. Remember—do it now.

Four Records Fall as Raider Track Team Has Successful Season

One of the best Shaker track teams in several years took to the cinder-paths this spring. Very strong in some events, and not so strong in a few, the Raider cindermen, captained by Tom Flaherty and Frank Wertheimer, piled up a dual meet record of 3 wins and 2 defeats, while doing a commendable job in several big relay meets.

Bruce Ohmann, runner-up in the district meet, represented Shaker's tennis team in the state meet. Bruce is a three-year man and captain of the team.

One of the brightest spots of the year was the mile relay team composed of Wertheimer, John Lawrence, Mel Pattison, and Temp Lowry. Undefeated in dual competition, these boys also made a good record for themselves in the big relays. At the Mansfield relays, the biggest track meet in the country, they tied East Tech for fourth place. At the Hilltop meet they chopped four seconds off the meet record, which had stood for 14 years, to win going away. Next, at the West Tech Relays, they again came in fourth against the best competition Cleveland could offer. When the Lake Erie League Meet was postponed from May 12 to May 23, Shaker entered the East Tech Relays at the last moment. This time Shaker piled up 17½ points to take seventh place as the relay team came in first, barely beating out Mansfield. The other points were made by Temp Lowry's victory in the 440-yard dash, and a second and tie for fourth by Flaherty and Van Hughes in the pole vault. Steve Lampl joined the mile relay team, when Lowry sprained an ankle, to help them qualify for the state meet at Columbus with a third place at the district meet.

Two school records and two Shaker track records were broken this year. Captain Tom Flaherty, who was defeated only once this year, broke the Shaker track record at the Shaw meet with a vault of 11 feet, 2 in. The mile relay team broke the school record at the West Tech Relays. Temp Lowry broke the school record in the 440 at the Hilltop Meet and the Shaker track record at the Lorain Meet the next Tuesday.

The hopes for next year are again very high with many returning juniors and such sophomores as Steve Lampl, Merle Kingsley, Van Hughes, Guy Conkey and Bill Freund. The prospects from the Junior High look good, too, so Shaker can expect to see another powerful track team next year.

Golfers Win District Meet

The golf team has had a very impressive season, losing only one of their 16 league matches. These league matches were all dual meets and were played at the Mayfield Heights Golf Course. The only meets that were played elsewhere were the district and Lake Erie League meets. The district was played at Highland, where they brought home a first place title and a trophy, now in the show case in the main hall. Behind us was Benedictine by 11 strokes. In the Lake Erie League our golfers lost a first place title, by only one stroke, to Euclid.

Shaker represents one of the six teams that make up the East Metropolitan Golf League, which is different from the Lake Erie. Other teams participating in this league are Brush, Benedictine, Euclid, Mayfield Heights, and Orange. Most of these teams have been easy victims to our high-powered team.

Twenty-two boys tried out for the golf team, but only seven made it. These seven varsity men are: Bill Hendricks, captain; Bob Soltz, Bob Ruffini, Mark Silverberg, Bob Englander, Bob Laird, and Wayne Whitehead. Although all these boys play sometime or other, the first four are the actual playing team.

The big meet was the State Meet held in Columbus on the Ohio State University Golf Course. The boys went down on Thursday, May 22, and stayed through Saturday. Making this meet was Coach Paul Stark's big aim; they certainly fulfilled it.
